MARKET ACTIVITY

during the day. A further reduction in the English Bank rate is expected. At Paris, Vienna and Berlin, discount rates were fractionally lower.
Purchases for foreign account in this market probably exceeded 20,000 shares, including Steel. Southern Pacific. Canadian Pacific. Amalgamated and Utah Copper. Purchases were made in the early dealings and again just before the close. Steel common rose from 62% to 53%, with traders "bucking" the rise. Bethlehem Steel issues gained fractionally, Republic Steel common a point, and the preferred P4.

Copper stocks were purchased for Boston and London account. Utah rose to 52 and Amalgamated crossed 75, while Anaconda, intusually active, touched 53%.

Traders were pleased by the gains shown in the investment stocks. St. Paul, Chesapeake and Ohio, Illinois Central, Louisville and Nashville and Pennsylvania were all active and higher. Southern Pacific crossed 34. The specialists in this stock expressed the opinion that the market has been pretty well desired up, and they look for a further improvement in the stock. Union Pacific again moved within narrow limits, with good support at 168 and a plentiful supply at 169.

While the trading in bonds showed a slight decrease in volume, prices were firm. Wabash refunding 4s rose from 58% to 58%. Their d Avenue adjustment 3s gained more than a point. Rock Island collateral 4s fell off fractionally.

New York States 198. "when issued," rose to a new high price, 1664. The public offering of these bonds to-morrow promises to be one of the most successful issues of recent years.

Labor troubles on the Delaware and Hudson were without market effect. Wall Street taking the view that an early settlement would be announced.

Prices of stocks continue to creep up in a uniet way that should encourage public buying. It would be a mistake, however, to conclude that the stock market will immediately show profits to purchasers. It should be sufficient for the time being that there is a distinct tendency towards appreciation in values.

Bristol, Va., January 19.-John J. Stuart, Abingion, and John H. Delfart, of Bristol, will appear before the Supreme Court of Virginia in Richmond on Tuesday in behalf, of J. W. Borland and H. Bristol, Va., January 19.—The call of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Ninth Virginia District for a nominating convention to be held in Bristol March 18 means another memorable struggle next fall to wrest the district from the Republicans, who have held it for many years with C. B. Slemp and the late Colonel C. Slemp as their candidates.

Smallpox Scare Prevents Usual Services on Sunday.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Bristol, Va., January 12.—Probably for the first time in the listory of the old and historic town of Abingdon, Va., no church services were held there on Sunday, all churches remaining closed, including that of the Methodists, where a big revival was in progress. The Town Council took the precaution to order the churches closed on account of the spread of smallpox in the town, which got a start for the reason that it was thought to be only chickenpox when it appeared.

Chairman J. D. Buchanan, of the Democratic committee, is very hopeful of a victory next fall because of the apparently divided condition of the Republican corees as between the standpat and progressive policies,
The Democratic convention will be held in Bristol in accordance with the call on March
